

In accordance with Public School Choice Guidance regulations students at Duncan High School have the option to attend 3 different schools in Stephens County. The schools available are Empire High School, Marlow High School, and Comanche High School.

In the 2011-2012 school year, 966 students were eligible for public school choice option. Two students chose to participate in this option.